PASTOR'S THOUGHTS TO PONDER

Psalm 100:4

As a young boy, my Sunday School teacher had the class to memorize a few verses or a short chapter. I was assigned Psalm 100. The fourth verse in this Psalm speaks of the importance of believers showing our great gratitude to our God for His goodness. Notice the Psalmist tells, in verse one, who should express such gratitude; verse two, how we are to express our gratitude; verse three, why we are able to express such gratitude; verse four, where we can express our gratitude; and in verse five, the reason for expressing gratitude. Our gratitude toward God is to be continual - not one day a year. It is to be visible - others should see it; and affectionate - more than our lips, but our love. In these days of great spiritual darkness, God has been so good and faithful to His people that we should be thankful everyday and allow it to be seen through choices we make and the way we live our lives.

Thank you for your donations for Toy Store for Jesus.
